Text: Understanding Intermediate Algebra, Fifth Edition by Hirsch and Goodman

We will cover most of the material in the first eight chapters. You will TI-Interactive on your laptop. You must also have a notebook for your class notes and completed assignments. Daily assignments will be given but not graded. Class time will be used to review the assignments. Keep your class notes and homework assignments, with corrections, in order in your notebook.

Tentatively, tests will be given on September 13, October 4, October 25, and November 15. These tests are worth 65% of your course grade. You will not be allowed to take a make-up test unless you notify me BEFORE the test is given to the class and have a valid excuse for not taking the test with the class.

A quiz will be given each week when no test is given. Each quiz will include a homework question that you will answer by copying your work and answer from your notebook. No make-up quizzes will be given. However, you will receive your quiz average for the score of a missed quiz if you have a valid excuse for missing the quiz. Your lowest quiz score will be dropped. The quizzes are worth 20% of your course grade.

A final exam will be given at the scheduled time for this class. This will be a two-hour exam and will be comprehensive. It will count as 15% of the course grade.
