1209 New Science Facility

Instructor: Andy Poe, 1129 New Science Facility, 227-1598

This course is required for all Computer Science and Network Computing majors. It is an introduction to C++ for Java programmers. Since the students in this course should already be able to program at the 120/122 level, we should be able to get to some pretty interesting stuff in C++.

Optional Text: The C++ Programming Language, Special Edition, Bjarne Stroustrup

This book is available at the Bottum University Center Bookstore. You can also get it from bookpool.com at a reduced price. This text is a complete description of the C++ language. We will certainly not be able to cover the entire C++ language—it is huge; however, this would be an excellent reference book for this course, and, indeed, for whenever you need to program something in C++!

Courseload: There will be frequent programming assignments and possibly written homework assignments. These will comprise 60% of your final grade. There will be two in-class exams each comprising 10%, and a final exam comprising 20%.

Office Hours: 3:00 – 5:00 P.M. Monday; 2:00 P.M. – 5:00 P.M. Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. Other hours are available by appointment, or you can just drop by. If I'm free, I'm happy to talk with you. However, please respect my lunch hour (12:00 P.M. – 1:00 P.M.).

DISABILITY SERVICES

If you have a need for disability-related accommodations or services, please inform the Coordinator of Disability Services in the Disability Services Office at 2001 C. B. Hedgcock (227-1700; TTY 227-1543). Reasonable and effective accommodations and services will be provided to students if requests are made in a timely manner, with appropriate documentation, in accordance with federal, state and University guidelines.
