Course Description and Overview

CS120 is both a foundation course for the computer science majors and a service course for other students. It is not a computer literacy course.

CS120 is designed to teach general principles about computer programming. After a short introduction to the organization of computers and the Internet, the main emphasis of CS120 is on the mastery of the programming language, JAVA, and its application to a variety of real-world problems.

Laptop Use

Laptops cannot be used during class lectures.

Laptops can be used for in-class assignments as indicated by your instructor.

Computer availability is required to complete Homework assignments and to access course materials on Web-CT.

Prerequisite

C- or better in MA100 or equivalent

Homework

About six (6) homework problems are assigned for the semester.

This course has a large laboratory component. Expect to spend up to 10 hours each week outside of class working on programming assignments. No partial credit is given for homework more than one week late. 10% is deducted for each late day (up to 5).

All homework is submitted to a Web-CT Assignment Dropbox. Use the Upload file button to upload all required files. After all files are uploaded, remember to use the Submit assignment button. Your assignment will not be submitted if the Submit assignment button is not used. You will receive an e-mail confirmation if your assignment has been submitted properly.

Tests

All testing will be closed book and laptops may not be used during testing. There are 4 tests for this course:

Test #1	Chapters 1-2
Test #2	Chapters 3-5
Test #3	Chapters 6
Final Exam	Chapters 1-6 (comprehensive)

For on-campus sections of this course the test schedule will be announced in class.

For on-line Web-CT sections of this course tests are scheduled when the student requests. Please note however that on-line students must complete and submit Tests #1 and #2 to Continuing Education before the last three (3) weeks of class.

Make-up of Missed Work

For on-campus sections of this course:

1. Make-up of missed tests will be allowed if you contact me prior to the absence and you have a valid excuse.

2. No make-up of quizzes or in-class assignments will be allowed. Your attendance in this class will affect your final grade.

For on-line Web-CT sections of this course:

There are no in-class assignments or quizzes.

Personal Contact

I am very interested in what is happening with my students and I appreciate when you inform me of situations with could affect your attendance and/or performance in my class. However, please do not explain your class absences or other personal problems to me in the classroom (before or after class). Please use one of the following ways to inform me of personal items:

- meet me in my office during my office hours (NSF 1306)
- use my office phone, 906-227-2501 (leave a voice message)
- e-mail me at dpowers@nmu.edu

Grading

For on-campus sections of this course:
